The top five were the following:

Reproductive rights and justice got 11 votes and tied with ERA at 11 votes
Stopping violence against women got 10 votes
Health care for women and families got 9 votes
Safeguarding social security got 8 votes

Healthcare has been dropped by national as a priority because a lot of other organizations are working on those issues. Therefore I did not write a public policy platform for that issue.
American Association of University Women of Missouri
Platform on Reproductive Rights and Justice

The United States Supreme Court’s 1973 ruling in Roe v. Wade legalized abortion for all women and found it to be a constitutionally protected “fundamental right.” The court determined that the right to privacy extends to a woman’s right to choose as articulated in the Roe decision.

AAUW of Missouri supports the right of every woman to safe, accessible, and comprehensive reproductive health care and believes that decisions concerning reproductive health are personal and should be made without governmental interference. AAUW trusts that every woman has the ability to make her own choices concerning her reproductive life within the dictates of her own moral and religious beliefs.

AAUW of Missouri believes that individuals should be given complete and accurate information about their reproductive health and family planning options. AAUW supports comprehensive sexuality education programs that include age-appropriate information about both abstinence and contraception. AAUW believes that minors should have unrestricted, confidential access to all health care services, including abortion.

AAUW of Missouri encourages efforts to increase access to emergency contraception for all women, and believes emergency contraception should be available without a prescription.

AAUW of Missouri believes in equity in the coverage of prescription and contraceptive drugs and devices to prevent unintended pregnancy and reduce the need for abortion.

AAUW of Missouri opposes attempts to limit access to reproductive health services through the passage of state legislation, including the prohibition of Medicaid funding for abortion, except in the cases of rape, incest and the endangerment of the woman’s life.
American Association of University Women of Missouri
Platform on the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA)

For over 200 years, American women have fought to be recognized as full citizens of the United States of America and in 2007 full citizenship is still not guaranteed by the Constitution.

AAUW of Missouri supports the equality of rights under the Constitution of the United States for women and men.

AAUW of Missouri believes equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

AAUW of Missouri believes the Congress shall have the power to enforce, by appropriate legislation the provisions of the ERA.

AAUW of Missouri supports legislation that guarantees the standard of judicial review to allege discrimination against women.

"We ask judges to render true and unprejudiced opinions of the law, and wherever there is room for a doubt to give its benefit on the side of liberty and equal rights to women, remembering that the true rule of interpretation under our national Constitution, especially since the amendments, is that anything for human rights is Constitutional, everything against human rights is unconstitutional." Susan B. Anthony -- 1872
Approximately 24 million women, comprising 53 percent of beneficiaries, currently receive Social Security benefits. For non-married women over 65, Social Security provides more than half of their income. AARP

AAUW of Missouri believes Social Security should protect all age groups.

AAUW of Missouri believes Social Security should provide a retirement benefit that is guaranteed for life and is adjusted to keep up with inflation.

AAUW of Missouri believes Social Security should protect workers and their families against the risks of death and disability.

AAUW of Missouri believes Social Security is crucial to women and minorities.

AAUW of Missouri supports a system of guaranteed financial security and opposes any system that would place the benefits and security Social Security provides at risk.