

Unconscious Bias: Recognizing Your Biases & How to Interrupt Them – National Webinar

Did you know that we all have unconscious or implicit biases? Do you have questions about unconscious bias and how it might impact you and how you interact with others in your personal and professional life? Join members of AAUW's National Inclusion and Equity Committee for a conversation about this very important topic. Where do unconscious biases come from? How do you know you have them? Learn how to confront your biases and what you can do to interrupt them. Only when we confront our biases are we able to truly recognize the value of diversity.
